

Looking for that unique central London location for your Christmas celebration?

Join us at Boyds Brasserie, Bar and Lounge ideally located moments from Trafalgar Square and Charing Cross, Embankment and Leicester Square tube stations. Excellent transport links mean that everyone can get home with ease, no matter how late the seasonal celebrations go on.

Our menus focus on smart British fare accompanied by wines of the highest quality, offered at surprisingly affordable prices. The choice we offer will cater for elegant sufficiency, whether you're after a quick early evening snack, a formal client lunch or if you're after more of a party with friends or colleagues.

Choose from our Tapas selection to create your own sharing boards to accompany our delicious cocktails, or our Christmas and set menus which are designed to offer a range of choices including more traditional fare.

What our discerning clientele have to say:

"The atmosphere was great the service was outstanding the food and value for money I could not fault anything about the evening."

"What a gem - lovely food, ambience and service. And value for money."

"Everyone was very impressed, as the decor is beautiful. We went on to enjoy a selection of English tapas which were very original and delicious."

"As well prepared and beautifully presented as the dishes were, the restaurant itself was the star!"

We look forward to hearing from you soon, and welcoming you into Boyds Brasserie, Bar & Lounge.
