A guide to the Scotch whisky regions

Like wines, the single malts of Scotland are grouped by region although these regions offer a guideline rather than a rule. The regions of Scotland are the

BOISDALE OF BELGRAVIA

Lowlands, the Highlands, Campbeltown and the island of Islay all having their own origins in the regulation of licences and duties, but they do also embrace certain characteristics.

The Lowlands

This area tends to produce softer malts, without the peat of the Highlands or the brininess of the coastal malts. The Lowlands is defined by a line following old county boundaries and running from the Clyde estuary to the River Tay. The line swings north of Glasgow and Dumbarton and runs to Dundee and Perth.

The Highlands, Islands and Speyside

By far the largest region, the Highlands embraces wide variations in style. The western Highlands have only a few scattered distilleries, and it is difficult to generalise about their character. If they have anything in common, it is a rounded, firm, dry character, with some peatiness. The far north of the Highlands has several whiskies with a notably heathery, spicy, character, probably deriving both from the local soil and the coastal location of the distilleries. The more sheltered East Highlands and the Midlands of Scotland (sometimes described as the South Highlands) have a number of notably fruity whiskies.

None of these Highland areas is officially regarded as a region, but the area between them, known as Speyside, is universally acknowledged as the heartland of malt distillation. This area, between the cities of Inverness and Aberdeen, sweeps from Granite Mountains down to fertile countryside, where barley is among the crops. It is the watershed of a system of rivers, the principal among which is the Spey. Although it is not precisely defined, Speyside is commonly agreed to extend from the River Findhorn in the west to the Deveron in the east. Within this region are several other rivers, notably the Livet.

The Speyside single malts are noted in general for their elegance and complexity, and often a refined smokiness. Beyond that, they have two extremes: the big, sherryish type, as typified by The Macallan, Glenfarclas and Aberlour; and the lighter, more subtle style. Within Speyside, the River Livet is so famous that its name is borrowed by some whiskies from far beyond its glen.

Only one may call itself The Glenlivet, only Braes of Glenlivet and Tamnavulin are produced in the valley, and only Tomintoul in the parish. These are all delicate malts, and it could be more tentatively argued that other valleys have malts that share certain characteristics. The Highland region includes a good few coastal and island malts, but one peninsula and just one island have been of such historical importance in the industry that they are each regarded as being regions in their own right.

Campbeltown

On the peninsula called the Mull of Kintyre, on the west coast of Scotland, Campbeltown once had about 30 distilleries. Today, it has only two. One of these, Springbank, produces two different single malts. This is achieved by the use of a lightly peated malt in one and a smokier kilning in the other. The Campbeltown single malts are very distinctive, with a briny character. Although there are only three of them, they are still considered by serious malt lovers to represent a region in their own right.

Islay

Pronounced "eye-luh", this is the greatest of whisky islands: much of it deep with peat, lashed by the wind, rain and sea in the Inner Hebrides. It is only 25 miles long, but has no fewer than eight distilleries, although not all are working. Its single malts are noted for their seaweedy, iodine like, phenolic character. A dash of Islay malt gives the unmistakable tang of Scotland to many blended whiskies.

Tasting notes

We have included a brief tasting note for each of the many single malt whiskies on our list which we hope will prove useful to both the novice and seasoned drinkers. By their nature, tasting notes are always subjective and so you may not agree with what we say! We are indebted to the many different sources who have provided these notes, not least www.whisky-world.com which provides a wealth of information for the whisky enthusiast.

BOISDALE CLYNELISH 1997
HIGHLAND

Southerland is Scotland's last wilderness, a region that offers dramatic coastlines and lonely moorland. Clynelish distillery can be found near Brora, a popular resort with golfers and fisherman. Clynelish is renowned for its briny coastal character. This single cask whisky reveals uplifting fruit and vanilla driven aromas with emerging roast beef hints. The flavour is succulent and gives citrus and salt intensities. A beautifully balanced finish crowns the experience.

BOISDALE AUCHROISK 1998
SPEYSIDE

Boisdale Auchroisk distillery, (pron. Othrusk), started producing in 1974. A major contributor to some famous blends, it is seldom seen as an independently bottled whisky. This single cask expression has a classic Speyside style nose with plenty of fresh soft yellow fruit, well woven sweet barley and oak. The palate is silky and mouth-watering, balanced with pear juice and apple acidity. The finish is clean, refreshing, uplifting and perilously moreish finale.

BOISDALE LONGMORN 1992
SPEYSIDE

Floral and opulent on the nose, backed up with well-varnished oak, this Longmorn starts the charm offensive long before it gets anywhere near the palate! There's a lovely, sweet attack on the tip of the tongue with roundness provided by the wood and malt undertones. Scottish strawberries and Devon cream crash around the mouth wrestling for supremacy with the luxurious macadamia nut texture. Caramelised peaches, old rosehip, and oozing honeycomb flesh out the forget-me-not finish

BOISDALE LINKWOOD 1991 SPEYSIDE

The picturesque linkwood distillery, founded in 1821, is one of the Speyside region's hidden gems. The Victorian buildings remain despite much updating and expansion during the 1960's and 70's. Swans and ducks swim on the distillery dam which provides cooling water for the condensers. Fruit and floral aromas abound with peach skin and vanilla coming to the fore. The delicately smoky palate has a balanced and complex feel, building to deliver nectarine, sugared almonds with sweet floral intensities towards the satisfying elegant finish.

666	Aberfeldy 12yrs Southern Highlands, bottled by Gordon & MacPhail On the nose we find orange zest, incense and a touch of sherry. The palate is oily, with clean fruitiness and very lively, fresh flavours. The finish is like biting into a kumquat; then a long, fruity glow.	40%	£10.50
847	Aberlour “a’bunadh” Speyside, distillery bottling A wide spectrum of saturated shades of sherry and a very fruity nose. Big sweet and woody cask strength malt with lots of oak in the finish. Softer and sweeter when diluted.	59.9%	£12.95
633	Aberlour 10yrs Speyside, distillery bottling Nutty, with nutmeg and a hint of cinnamon. Although peated it is very brandy like and warming. Not overly challenging but quite satisfying, particularly with dessert.	40%	£9.50
845	Aberlour 16yrs Speyside, distillery bottling Aberlour 16 year old has been double matured in traditional oak and sherry casks. Intense, honeyed flavoured, complex, with fabulous spicy wood notes lingering & mouth-watering finish.	43%	£13.50
846	Aberlour 18yrs Speyside, distillery bottling Notes of chocolate & orange zest, with soft flavours of cream, peach and apricots, & a warm soft finish.	43%	£16.95
634	Aberlour 15yrs Sherry Cask Speyside, distillery bottling Complex and sophisticated – a perfect balance of sherry and the malty, spicy, house character. The two elements are tightly combined, with the spicy flavours emerging slowly: nutmeg, aniseed and emphatic orange flower. Long, soothing, with a minty and spicy finish.	40%	£15.50
635	Ardbeg 10yrs Islay, distillery bottling The nose is amazingly smoky with a whiff of tar covered rope. The palate is robust with more peat smoke and the flavours of turf and Lapsang Souchong. A long finish with a fragrant peaty reek. Whilst flavour packed, this is still a delicate Scotch.	46%	£12.95
651	Ardbeg Uigedail Islay, distillery bottling Pronounced 'Oog-a-dal.' A fine drop of Ardbeg bottled at cask strength. A marriage of Ardbeg from bourbon barrel and sherry butt which gives a sweet and smoky finish to this malt. Uigedail is the loch from which all Ardbeg water flows. This 'huge' dram is, in the best traditions of Ardbeg, intense.	54.2%	£17.50

660	Ardbeg 'Lord of the Isles' Islay, distillery bottling A deep smoky yet balanced aroma with powerful peat and a sweet mouth feel. The palate is silky with fruitiness, usually reminiscent of lemons, with a momentary suggestion of cherries. The flavours become almond and walnut-like, then rooty and peppery. A long dry finish with chocolate malt and crushed peat.	46%	£175.00
836	Ardbeg Single Cask Islay, distillery bottling for Verdier in Italy 1 of 246 bottles Of the many 72 cask Ardbeg has released this is one of the finest. Bottled from a single refill for Italy in 2003, over half the cask were returned to the distillery due to legal issues after the sale of Glenmorangie in 2004. At the distillery almost all the remaining bottles were used in tastings and such research. This remains, as a result one of the rarest of all Ardbeg bottling. The whisky itself is quite simply stunning the nose is rich with layers of dense oily phenols, tropical and green fruits, with an unusual distinctive medical streak running through it. On the palate the ancient peated malt detonates and after 31 years still come through clean and balanced. The familiar Ardbeg harmony is here in spades, floral, citrus character on the finish and immense simmering, sinewy creosols and tar all over the mid palate the medicinal aspect is now concentrated iodine. An amazing Ardbeg and a stunning drink that totally challenges and beguiles the senses.	49.9%	£175.00
652	Auchroisk 10yrs Speyside, distillery bottling Light soft and creamy. The nose is reminiscent of American cream soda, custard and cooked apple, bread and butter pudding with nutty malt underneath. Very soft and sweet on the palate. Straight down the middle. A delicious soft finish.	43%	£13.00
745	Auchentoshan Three Wood Lowlands, distillery bottling Sweet, butterscotch with prunes and custard. Jaffa cake and apricots with Christmas cake and roasted almonds. The Three Wood expression is matured in three different casks – American bourbon wood, Spanish oloroso sherry then finished in Pedro Ximenez casks.	40%	£13.50
889	Balmenach 27yrs Speyside, distillery bottling A bottling of 1983 vintage Balmenach from Douglas Laing as part of the Old Malt Cask range. This one was matured for 27 years in a refill hogshead before bottling in April 2011.	46%	£29.50

645	Balvenie Signature 12yrs Speyside, distillery bottling Rich and malty on the nose, with characteristically insinuating notes of spice, dried fruits, vanilla and honey. Becoming increasingly floral, with soft toffee and a hint of sweet sherry as it warms in the glass. Full bodied on the palate, yet with classic Balvenie smoothness and grace. Vanilla, honey, sherried cinnamon, nutmeg and a whiff of smoke merge beautifully. The finish is long with spicy oak. A great whisky. David Stewart has performed his magic once again!	43%	£12.00
664	Balvenie 15yrs Speyside, distillery bottling Rich and complex, suggestive of years of careful ageing, it has a honeyed maltiness with vanilla, oak flavours and delicate spice notes. Long and complex with a touch of liquorice.	40%	£20.00
675	Balvenie 21yrs Port Wood Speyside, distillery bottling The nose is rich, creamy and malty. The maltiness becomes creamy, then honeyed, then develops raisiny notes (Scottish black bun) and nutty dryness. An inviting, seductive dryness. The finish is bitter black chocolate.	40%	£35.00
659	Balvenie 30yrs Speyside, distillery bottling A Gold Medal Winner at the 2004 International Spirits Challenge. A special whisky for special occasions or just to reward yourself for being great.	47.3%	£79.50
646	Benrinnes 15yrs Speyside, distillery bottling An exquisite and powerful nose. A bittersweet taste with sherry dryness and oaky smoke and a long, dry finish. Quite similar to the The Macallan style.	43%	£13.00
656	Bowmore Dawn Islay, distillery bottling Fairly robust on the palate with sweet flavours of grapes, plums and fig rolls with an underlying blackcurrant citrus quality all being imparted from the superb port casks.	56%	£35.00
732	Benromach Organic Speyside, bottled by Gordon & MacPhail Sweet, charred oak aromas with bananas, pineapples & earthy toast. The palate is sweet vanilla & toffee with hints of green apples & orange peel with a rich resinous note.	43%	£12.00

650	Blair Athol 12yrs Southern Highlands, distillery bottling The distillery has always insisted on using Orkney peat, preferred for its young character. A dry, sharp nose, becoming sweeter and creamier with some light caramel and heathery overtones.	43%	£10.95
653	Bowmore Darkest 15yrs Islay, distillery bottling The sherry aroma is fantastic, together with almonds and mature oak. The peaty notes become an excellent foil to the fruity flavours and do not allow the sherry to totally dominate. Hints of the sea drift in given a little time in the glass. Soft over ripe dark grapes flood the palate like an incoming tide. It's rich, but not over the top, due to the wonderful heather fire smoky flavour you will find on the back palate. A warm chocolate sweetness runs throughout.	43%	£16.50
631	Bowmore 18yrs Islay, distillery bottling From the oldest distillery on Islay, the nose of the 18 year old has autumn leaves on a damp woodland floor with heather, wood smoke, and waxy apple peelings, with a citrus fruitiness. On the palate there is a lot more evidence of the large number sherry casks used at Bowmore. Intensely floral with more citrus and chocolate. A complex whisky that changes and develops in the glass, very much a whisky that rewards time and patience.	43%	£24.50
657	Bowmore 25yrs Islay, distillery bottling Full and round, with a gentle softness, the nose has a strong herb like fragrance overlying the sherry and peat notes. The palate has plenty of sherry, but surely as night follows day, you will find the oak, the smoke, the brine, the ozone, ending with toffee and hazelnut. The finish is mellow, gentle and warming. Try in front of a peat fire with a Gale Force 8 raging outside.	43%	£62.50
818	Brora 25yrs, Dun Bheagan Collection Northern Highlands, distillery bottling A cask strength and sherried bottling from the magnificent but closed Highland distillery. Rich, with a good balance between wood and spirit, and a thread of smoke.	48.5%	£45.00
724	Brora 30yrs Northern Highlands, distillery bottling Brora has a rich nose and is quite smoky.	55.7%	£91.80
736	Bruichladdich 18yrs Islay, distillery bottling Matured for 18 years in bourbon casks and then Willi Opitz red Pinot wine casks. Soft flavours of crème brûlée, syrup, toffee, vanilla and citrus fruits Highly recommended.	46%	£26.50

As befits its age, the trademark smoky-medicinal character of Caol Ila is controlled. Adding water gives a sweeter start, then a light smokiness elegantly envelopes the palate. Sweetly drying overall. Medium bodied, elegant and smooth.	43%	£49.50
850	Cardhu 12yrs A much-loved single malt, Cardhu is an easygoing, charming Speysider. With clean, crisp oak and sweet malt evoking flavours of honeyed flapjacks and home-made caramel squares, this is one for the sweet-toothed among you.	40%	£11.50
881	Clynelish 14 Northern Highlands, distillery bottling This is a superb example of what Clynelish can produce even at younger age. The balance is sublime and the mouthfeel is perfectly rounded. A great 14 year old Highland malt, quite coastal too.	46%	£12.00
669	Cragganmore 12yrs Speyside, distillery bottling Intensely, nearly overwhelmingly, perfumed, especially with a splash of water. Very herbal and aromatic, the palate is dry and reminiscent of a very dry white wine. Exquisitely balanced, it is great as an aperitif, but complex enough to be enjoyed long after dinner.	40%	£10.50

In 2006 Glenfarclas was named distiller of the year by Whisky Magazine. They were nominated for the award for being 'consistently good and staying true to our core values.' For six generations everyone at Glenfarclas has taken personal pride on the quality of the whisky we produce, so it was a great pleasure that these values should be recognised by the industry. It was this pride and sense of history which lead us to create a collection of limited edition. Glenfarclas expressions – The Family Casks John L S Grant (Glenfarclas 2006).

824	Glenfarclas Family Cask 1952 There is lots of nuttiness and marzipan on the nose, with vanilla trying to fight its way forward. The taste is light, bitter, sweet, sour, smoky, every possible combination of flavours. Even some citrus and orange cordial. At 57 years old, this is the oldest bottling of Glenfarclas to date.	96	47.3%	£370.00
825	Glenfarclas Family Cask 1957 A very rich, dark whisky, which reflects almost no light through the bottle. Strong, rich tannins are immediately present on the nose. However, you will also experience lots of sherry, rich stewed coffee, a fresh bag of liquorice; many different aromas as this delightful whisky is released into the air. After about 20 minutes you might even sense macadamia nuts. This is a very big, heavy whisky rich in alcohol soaked fruit. Almost bitter to begin with, then a delicate sweetness present. A strong double espresso immediately comes to mind. It has a bitter, dark chocolate aftertaste, present for a very long time. In short, a fantastic whisky. A great treat.	94	46.2%	£233.00
826	Glenfarclas Family Cask 1963 A lovely rich, dark whisky colour more often associated with a dark cognac. A big heavy sherried whisky; great if you like them big and powerful. This bottling is more than 40 years old but has lost none of its appeal. Still strong but not overpowering. Some vanilla and citrus present at the back of your mouth almost like the caramelised fruit you'd find in a fruit cake. A wonderful long finish sitting heavily at the back of your mouth. Sherry flavours and fruit cake wonderfully balanced.	420	56.7%	£104.00
827	Glenfarclas Family Cask 1969 This strong, dark red whisky is a great all-rounder just fantastic from nose to finish. 833	Glenfarclas Family Cask 1990 This bottling has a hint of redness and is darker and richer than you would expect from the '90s. The thick, powerful nose is bursting with sherry and Demerara sugar. The lovely malty flavour keeps pace with the powerful rich viscous flavours of sherry. It's a full whisky that demands respect; high in alcohol and flavour. Adding a little water does not tame the flavours. Instead, it simply elongates the sensation until you reach the lovely caramelised fruit flavours near the end. The finish is something to write home about – very elegant and refreshing.	58.9%	£36.60

In the summer of 1886 Glenfiddich's founder, William Grant, set out to fulfil a lifelong ambition of creating the 'best dram in the valley'. With the help of his seven sons and two daughters, William built his distillery in a single year. Their hard work was rewarded on Christmas Day 1887 when the first drop of spirit flowed from the small copper pot stills. William named his distillery Glenfiddich, Gaelic for 'Valley of the Deer'. Over 120 years later, Glenfiddich is one of the few single malt distilleries to remain entirely family owned and the whisky has become the world's most awarded single malt, a true reflection of the passion, integrity and innovative spirit that have been passed down through the generations.

THE GLENLIVET

Glenlivet is a special place in Speyside. Translated from Gaelic, the name means 'valley of the smooth-flowing one'. Those who christened it were most likely referring to the River Livet, which surfaces high in the Ladder Hills and meanders down to join the Avon. But something altogether more sought-after has been flowing here for centuries: whisky.

711	The Glenlivet 12yrs Speyside, distillery bottling Fresh vanilla and caramel aromas mingle with the scent of cooked fruit. Delicate in texture, a hint of spice, smoke and butterscotch is followed by a subtly spicy finish.	40%	£8.95
712	The Glenlivet 15yrs French Oak Speyside, distillery bottling Rich vanilla and floral nose with, again, cooked fruit showing through in the palate. Custard, fudge and citrus zest with an oaky spice finish.	40%	£13.50
823	The Glenlivet 18yrs Speyside, distillery bottling Elements beautifully combined. Depth of flowery aromas. Very light touch of fresh peatiness. Some sweetness and a hint of sherryish oak. Palate: Flowery and sweet at first, then developing peach-stone nuttiness	40%	£19.95
806	The Glenlivet Nàdurra 16yrs Speyside, distillery bottling Nadurra is the Gaelic word for natural and revisiting 19 th century practises and unlike most modern whiskies, this single malt is not chill-filtered, giving more body and richer texture. Lemon pulp, green apples and praline on the nose give way to a luscious palate of poached peaches in vanilla syrup, white chocolate, aniseed lollipop and candied ginger.	56%	£15.00
808	The Glenlivet 21yrs Speyside, distillery bottling An opulent, mature nose with a sherry influence. An intricate array of wood and fruit: Christmas cake, sultanas, maraschino cherry. Water enlightens the fruity bouquet and brings out vanilla and lighter notes of ripe peaches. Pear and marzipan pie. Luscious barley sugar aromas. This full-bodied whisky is unctuous and mouth coating, almost syrupy. Oak holds the reins back, releasing a drying spiciness of cinnamon, ginger, walnut and dark chocolate. Seriously smooth whisky!	40%	£37.50

814	The Glenlivet 25yrs Speyside, distillery bottling The Glenlivet XXV is the perfect tribute to the skill and judgement of the craftsmen involved in making this special whisky. The original new spirit character, fruity and floral, has been faithfully retained during years of careful maturation. The final finish in rare ex-sherry butts yields a sublime, intense whisky of powerful yet elegant character. The sherry shows itself with luscious fruity and spicy note with creamier notes rising. Orange crème brûlée; candied fruit; pineapple. Silky and caressing the palate is sweet at first then releasing a full bunch of spices; ginger, cinnamon, allspice, nutmeg. Developing dark chocolate and orange peel.	43%	£59.50
819	The Glenlivet 1964 Cellar Collection Speyside, distillery bottling Hand selected from The Glenlivet cellar by Master Distiller Jim Cryle. After maturing in the finest sherry and traditional oak casks, the 1964 vintage has reached the peak of maturity. Each bottle encompasses The Glenlivet's classic Speyside character with many layers of subtle complexity. Rich, fruity aromas of raising and ripe bananas. Notes of sherry and walnuts interplay with a spicy oakiness. Full and wonderfully smooth on the palate with the perfect balance of sweet plums and the deep floral extravagance of heather in bloom.	45.1%	£328.00
648	The Glenlivet 1973 Cellar Collection Speyside, distillery bottling The 1973 Cellar Collection is a rare style of whisky thanks to its age and cask profile: a single ex-sherry butt and two refilled American oak hogsheads have been hand-selected as the absolute zenith of the stock available from that vintage and the result is a rich, sherried expression. Bursting with big juicy sweet orange flavours combined with rich sherry sweetness and freshly baked moist ginger bread notes. The fruity flavours are very reminiscent of fruit drop boiled sweets. Perfectly balanced, mouth-watering, fills the mouth with sweet fruity flavours echoing the nose. Allied with these fruity orange and peach flavours is a wonderful liquorice and aniseed experience followed by a cinnamon ginger tang.	49%	£225.00
